Flowers and History

-Kanuma Senjusan Amuzement Park-

This park was laid out in 1948 and there are about 300 cherry blossoms trees and about 1000 azalea trees in 27372 m².

In this part, there are some rides such as a train, a ferris wheel, a roller coaster and a carousel pony. Families are able to have enjoyable time there.

Also there is a Wooden Buddha's guardian's statue which was built in Kamakura Era (AD 1185-1333).

Senjuin (Temple)

Wooden Senju Buddha's guardian's statue has been placed in the temple. Senju means having thousand arms to save people from suffering. The materials of this statue is ark tree and painted by lacquer, and the crystal eyes are decollated. The face of this statue is like a realistic art. This statue was made in the end of Kamakura Era. The other parts of the statue, such as multi-face, backs, and arms holding pikes were added in Edo Era.
